WET IN THE SIBERIAN PREPARATIONS

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 10.—The remarkable success of the Czechoslovak legion in restoring law and order in Siberia and overcoming the armed opposition of the Austro-German prisoners, has had the effect of suspending preparation plans by the entente and the United States for the organization of a military force for intervention.

It is stated authoritatively, however, that none of the plans considered met objection by the United States, except that they involved weakening the western front. United States supplies will continue to go to Siberia as needed.

SEC'Y DALTON RE-ELECTED

H. B. M. A. HELD A DIRECTORS' MEETING LAST NIGHT TO ELECT SECRETARY.

At a meeting of the H. B. M. A. directors, held last night, Vice President Ed L. Weathers presided in the absence of President J. A. Clements, who is ill.

The principal business was to elect a secretary and Garner E. Dalton was unanimously re-elected and given a substantial increase in salary.

WHEATLESS BREAD BY GOV'T EXPERTS

A new wheatless bread has been discovered by experts of the Department of Agriculture who have been experimenting in the food laboratory for nearly a year.

This wheatless bread can be made in many varieties, most of them affording a white loaf hard to distinguish from the familiar wheat bread.

The experiment kitchen of the department has baked all of them with uniform success. The recipe is soon to be published on a new food card by the office of home economics. The card will carry directions for making all of the wheatless breads, and in addition for a one-half wheat bread, and for a one-quarter bread.

Here are the directions for the wheatless bread.

All of these: 1 1/2 cups liquid, 2 tablespoons corn sirup, 1/4 cake yeast, 2 tablespoons salt, 1 whole egg. With one of these 3 1/2 cups barley, 2 1/2 cups ground rolled oats. And one of these: 2 1/2 cups corn flour, 2 1/2 cups rice flour, 2 1/2 cups sweet potato flour, 2 1/2 cups (scant) topioca flour.

Make a sponge of materials under 1 (except egg) and of ingredients used from 2 and 3. Sponge should stand in warm place until very light, at least two hours. Work in balance of substitute mixture when sponge is light. Work in egg beaten slightly. Shape into loaf. Place in pan. Brush top of loaf with melted fat. Let rise to double bulk and bake in loaf pan in hot oven for one hour.

WIRE CONTROL MEASURE UP

WILL BE CALLED IN SENATE TODAY AND INDICATIONS ARE IT WILL PASS.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 10.—The sentiment for the Telegraph-Telephone control measure apparently increased in the Senate with its formal presentation today by the commerce committee. The leaders predict its passage before the end of the week. Chairman Smith announced to-night that it will be called up for consideration tomorrow.

WILLIAM WAS AWAY.

London, July 10.—The British air raid on Coblenz Friday morning was the severest of the war, according to a Basle dispatch to the Express today. Twelve persons were killed and 23 injured.

The northern part of the station was seriously damaged and the Rhine and Moselle bridges and the royal palace were hit. Great damage was done to the fortress of Ehrenstein.

CONDITIONS BAD AUSTRIAN ARMY

TROOPS HUNGRY AND ANXIOUS FOR PEACE—SAY WAR IS FOR GERMANY.

London, July 10.—From many Austrian-Hungarian prisoners captured by the Italians in the course of the recent operations interesting information has been gleaned of conditions on the battle front as well as in the dual monarchy itself. Officers, non-commissioned officers and men agree that things along the front line are going very badly and that, although the officers and men are not actually starving, they are always hungry. Horses dying from exhaustion or wounds are at once cut up and eaten by the troops.

There is a great scarcity of food throughout both Hungary and Austria and disturbances caused by disaffected soldiers returning from captivity in Russia are frequent occurrences. Prisoners cited an incident of a band of officers and men who occupied a wood near Judenberg and set the authorities at defiance.

To make matters worse, this year's crop is a very meager one; no food is being sent from the Ukraine and the poorer people have little or nothing to exist on.

NEW TRAINING CAMP FOR KENTUCKY

Danville, Ky., July 9.—Centre College, one of the oldest educational institutions in the state and the alma mater of thousands of people throughout the state, has been placed on a full military basis and will continue to be so operated for the duration of the war, according to the announcement made here tonight by the college authorities.

The step taken by Centre College was decided upon some time ago and was ratified today by the War Department after a series of conferences between Dr. W. A. Ganfield, president of the institution, and War Department officials held in Washington.

The War Department will designate an officer to serve as commandant and will supply all the guns and other equipment needed by the students. One professor of Centre College will be named immediately to proceed for training at Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., so that he may qualify for the position of Adjutant. Five students will be designated at the same time to attend the Alabama camp in order that they may serve as officers of the college corps.

At the present time Centre College has about 125 students, all of whom will be required to observe military training as one of the requirements leading to the degree.

THOUSANDS OF FLYERS READY

A FAMOUS FRENCH AVIATOR TELLS OF THE SUCCESS OF THE U. S. SKY PROGRAM

Paris, July 9.—Hopes founded on American aerial aid to the allies soon will be realized says Capt. Herteaux the famous French aviator, who has just returned from a visit from the United States, in a statement to the Associated Press. Both American pilots and American machines are coming overseas in large numbers. The captain's statement follows:

"We now have several thousand American pilots in France. They have arrived after adequate training so they have only to put the finishing touches to the already sound instructions."

"We have not sufficient chaser planes to mount all these pilots but the machines are being manufactured more quickly than the pilots can complete their training. It is certain that America alone in a few months will be more than able to supply all its aviators with machines."

"America has still something to learn in the construction of chaser planes. Progress is being shown every day. The Liberty motor is now ready and machines fitted with it are being turned out rapidly. The American bombardment airplanes are of the finest quality and they are reaching the front regularly."

"The day of errors, in which we had our share, is now over. The hopes which public opinion founded on American aviation soon will be realized."

MAJ. MITCHELL'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE TO-DAY

FUNERAL CORTEGE STARTS FROM CITY HALL EARLY TUESDAY.

New York, July 10.—The body of Maj. John Purroy Mitchell, former Mayor of New York City, who was killed by falling from an airplane at Gerstner Aviation Field, La., last Saturday and which reached here Tuesday, was taken from his mother's home this afternoon to the city hall, where it will lie in state under military guard until the funeral cortege starts this morning. The casket will be closed after Maj. Mitchell's relatives and close personal friends have called at the home and will not again be opened.

The public was admitted to the city hall from 5:30 o'clock p. m. until 8:30 a. m. Thursday, when the procession will move to St. Patrick's Cathedral. The body will be escorted from Mrs. Mitchell's residence by a United States army officer and eight bearers, a squad of motorcycle patrolmen and a troop of mounted police. The procession will be received at city hall by Mayor Hylan and other municipal officials, but there will be no formal ceremony.

Honorary pallbearers were announced as follows: Theodore Roosevelt, Cleveland H. Dodge, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, George W. Nichols, Jacob H. Schiff, Frank L. Polk, Maj. Gen. William A. Mann, John G. Agar, Rear Admiral Nathaniel R. Usher and Capt. George Meyer, representing Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood.

Announcement was made that no automobiles or carriages will be permitted in the funeral cortege. The honorary pallbearers and city officials will walk from city hall to the Cathedral.

President Wilson sent the following message to Mrs. Mitchell: "May I not express to you my very deep and sincere sympathy. The tragic death of your husband has been a shock to the whole country, and I am sure that I am speaking the feelings of the multitude in thus expressing my personal feelings."

As one of the reports to influence peace, the German socialists are saying the allies are preparing to raid German cities with hundreds of airplanes. Let's put them where they can say, "I told you so!"

MILLIONAIRES IN KENTUCKY

INCOME TAX RETURNS SHOW THAT 3,850 COME UNDER LAW IN STATE.

Washington, July 10.—How many millionaires are there in the state of Kentucky?

A report just issued by the commissioner of internal revenue giving detail statistics of income tax collections throws an interesting light on the subject.

Counting 5 per cent as a reasonable average return on a large fortune, there are eighty-one millionaires in Kentucky, as there are that many individuals who report annual incomes of $5,000 and over.

There is one person in Kentucky who has an income between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 a year. No names are given, and everyone is left free as to the identity of the holders of the mammoth fortunes. In the state of Kentucky according to the figures made public by the commissioner of internal revenue, 3,850 persons made income tax returns.

WILHELM LETS KUEHLMAN QUIT

DECLARATION THAT GERMAN SWORD COULD NOT WIN PEACE PUT NATION IN UPROAR.

Paris, July 9.—The German emperor has accepted the resignation of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, according to a Basle dispatch to the Havas agency. It is expected that Admiral von Hintze, the German minister at Christiania and formerly minister to Mexico, will succeed him.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann became foreign minister Aug. 6, 1917 succeeding Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, whose retirement closely followed the exposure of his plot to involve the United States in war with Mexico and Japan in the event that this country showed any inclination to join the entente allies. Dr. Kuehlmann's conduct of the foreign office appeared to be more than usually successful until June 25 last when he appeared before the reichstag to discuss the political aspects of the situation facing Germany. During his address he said:

"In view of the magnitude of this war and the number of powers including those from overseas, we are engaged, its end can hardly be expected through purely military decision alone and without recourse to diplomatic negotiations. Some reports are to the effect that stag it became common knowledge that Dr. von Kuehlmann's retirement from office would be forthcoming. Some reports were to the effect that his address was intended to inform the German people that their armies could not win the war and was delivered with the cognizance of the emperor who, when he saw what a storm had been stirred up, resolved to make von Kuehlmann the scapegoat."

THE DRYS WIN FIRST BLOOD

PROHIBITION AMENDMENT UP FOR CONSIDERATION IN THE SENATE TO-DAY.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 10.—Supporters of National Prohibition as a war measure won the first fight tonight when the Senate refused to sustain a ruling by Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, President protem, that the prohibition amendment to the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural bill should be stricken from the measure because of its general legislation. Consideration of the amendment followed immediately, with Senator Phelan, of California, offering a motion to strike out all reference to wine. This motion will come up tomorrow and a final vote on amendment will be reached in a few days.

DESTROYED 107 LOST BUT 7

ALLIED AND AMERICAN FLYERS OVERWHELMINGLY SUPERIOR DURING THE AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE.

Italian Army Headquarters, Monday, July 10.—The air superiority of the entente allies on the Austrian front is indicated by the figures made public today dealing with the ten days offensive of the Austro-Hungarians last June. The allies, including American pilots, operated 120 chaser planes and destroyed 107 Austrian airplanes and seven observation balloons. The allies' losses were seven airplanes brought down in the enemy lines and three balloons. Three allied pilots were killed, six were missing and seven are missing.

Three thousands observation photographs were taken, and 6000 bombs weighing 90 tons, were dropped by airplanes.

HILL TRIBES ARE HELPING THE ALLIES

For the moment, the eyes of the allied world are turned away from the front in France toward the hitherto inactive front in Albania, where the French and Italians continue to push successes against Austrians. While it is not expected that far reaching results will be brought about the movement has great possibilities. The fighting is along a line sixty miles, from the river Devoli to the Adriatic. Essad Pasha and the Albanians are fighting the invaders from the north by side of the allies.

Though seventy miles from Saloniki, the enemy ranks there already exhibit symptoms of nervousness, for the Austro-Bulgarian right wing may be outflanked and there are signs that the offensive may be launched north from Saloniki at the same time against the war weary Bulgarians.

The political results will be notable for the successes they will bring to the side of the allies the hill tribes which are among the finest fighters in the world.

There are indications that the Germans are preparing an effort of some magnitude to recapture the valuable high ground won by the Australians and Americans within the past few days on the north east of Amiens, north of Villers-Bretonneux.

The only infantry operation within the past twenty-four hours in which ground was gained is reported by Field Marshal Haig. It occurred on the Flanders front, where the British advanced their line slightly near Messines.

This improves the position which protects Nieppe wood and the approaches to Hazebrouck, the railway junction back of the wood, continued possession of which is vital to the Ypres front.

Comparative quiet prevailed on the French front.

An anti-tobacco crusader who is Wilson does not smoke. Neither does Col. Roosevelt nor Ex-President

But what does that prove? Nothing, except that they prefer not to smoke. Other presidents—notably Grant and Andrew Jackson—were great smokers.

The crusader points to Jess Wil-

a heavy consumer of tobacco.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA*Tom's Sort
of Girl

By JANE OSBORN

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"It isn't so much the fact that she's a cabaret singer or even that Tom was deceiving me—but she simply wouldn't be Tom's sort of girl. They'd be sure to be unhappy." This is what Tom Rawdon's substantial older sister said when she first suspected that, while Tom had told her he was going to marry one kind of girl, as a matter of fact he was going to marry another kind of girl.

The sister's informer was Pete Brevier, one of Tom's old pals from the town where he and the sister both made their home. The young man had made a hurried trip to the big city and there had met Tom and "his girl," and suspecting nothing irregular had come back blurring out to the sister that he had met "Tom and that pretty little cabaret singer that Tom was going to marry."

In the meantime for some weeks Tom's letters to his sister had occasional references to the stenographer at his office—Miss Remson—whom he hoped some day to make his wife. "I hope you aren't going to raise a rumpus because she isn't a girl of leisure," Tom wrote home, knowing perfectly well his older sister's ability to raise a rumor when things didn't go to suit her ideas. "Miss Remson is as fine a woman as I ever met. She came to this office as a stenographer a week or so after I did, and though she hasn't had exactly the same bringing up that you have, you are sure to like her."

Tom's sister had thoroughly approved, in fact, she was so sure, before Tom wrote this, that Tom would be inclined to choose what she chose to call "some scatter-brained little girl with her head in her heels," that the news that he was to marry a girl who was serious enough to be a stenographer came as a relief.

Then came the confirmation of what she had always suspected. He had actually introduced a cabaret dancer as his fiancée, and of course a cabaret dancer was a scatter-brained little girl with her head in her heels. How could she be anything else if she was a professional dancer?

The sister spared no time in packing the few duds she considered necessary for such a mission, making her husband assure her that he would be quite happy during her absence and going off to the big city to "raise a rumpus."

She didn't even wire to her brother that she was coming, but after she did get in about five o'clock one evening telephoned to his office and announced, in a voice so cordial that it gave no warning of her suspicion and intention, that she was there.

"Meet you for dinner? Why, of course I will," Tom Rawdon said to the sister over the phone. "I had asked little Miss Remson—Madge Remson—to have dinner with me. You won't mind having her, will you?"

"Miss Remson—Madge Remson?"
The sister's voice was growing less cordial. "I don't seem to remember Miss Remson."

"I wrote you about it," Tom laughed.
"She is working here as a stenographer—that's how I met her and—"

"Oh, the stenographer," purred the sister's voice. "I should be delighted.
Where shall I meet you?"

"Madge dines early," said Tom, "so we were figuring on six o'clock. I'll come right over to you at your home and she can have time to run home and doll up and then meet us at the hotel. We can dine there as well as anywhere, and that will be more convenient for you."

Madge left early and that gave Tom's sister an opportunity to make the first of the little sisterly speeches that she felt it her duty to deliver.

"She is a perfectly splendid girl, Tom," she began. "I'm entirely satisfied. She will be a credit to the family.
I'm a keen judge of women and I can guarantee that."

"I had hoped you would like her," faltered Tom, who was always a little himself. "Who the deuce was she going to dinner with, anyway?"

When Jean left him she went directly to a nearby lunch counter, where she dined in state with—herself. But Waring did not know that. He passed an uneventful and very unpleasant evening by himself and finally came to the conclusion that matrimony was a deep problem to be carefully considered. And he wondered what Jean Coleman knew about being in love, anyway—evidently something.

He determined to see the thing through honestly, however, and wearily wrote to and interviewed a few more applicants. At the end of that time he was sure of two things—he did not want to marry any of the women he had seen, but he did want to marry Jean Coleman. He began to wonder why he had not found it out before.
She probably wouldn't look at him now that he had made such an idiot of himself. He was glad he hadn't told anyone else but her, anyway—he wasn't proud of his venture.

The door bell rang penetratingly and he groaned hopelessly. Nevertheless, he was resigned, and when his landlady, Mrs. Morley, ushered in a veiled, slight little woman in a dark suit, he was prepared for the worst.

"I saw your advertisement in the paper," she began in a clear, strangely familiar voice.

"I regret to say I'm no longer in the market," he put in hurriedly, before she had a chance to say anything more.

"Oh, I didn't come to apply," she assured him hastily. "I only came to tell you you're all wrong about getting a wife this way. I thought maybe you didn't have anyone to advise you.
I'm very old—her voice belied the word—and I thought I might save you from doing something foolish.
Please don't marry in haste—you'll surely meet someone some day who will make your waiting worth while.
You can't just make yourself love people, you know, even if you are married, and you mustn't make such a dreadful mistake and ruin your life.
Even if you are going away, don't jump into marriage hastily—please believe what I say."

In her earnestness and excitement the woman had quite forgotten herself. She was actually pleading with him to save himself, and he was listening, fascinated to what she had to say.
When she had finished she stood with her hands pressed together, and he could feel that she was looking at him through the still lowered veil. Suddenly she seemed to recall herself and, with a quick movement, walked towards the door. Waring sprang after her and seized her by the arm.

"Let me go!" she commanded him.
"I must go at once. I only came because I thought I might help you—I don't want anyone to see my face."
"I must," he insisted, and before she had a chance to struggle further, he threw the heavy veil back from her hat. Then he stood transfixed.

"Jean!" he cried, and gazed into a flushed and tear-stained face. "I might have known it was you; no one else could be so wonderful," he added, still devouring her with his eyes.

"I never meant you to know," she said, sinking into the first chair, "but I couldn't bear to have you marry one of those applicants—it was too much.
I never thought you'd be so rude and lift my veil—it was foolish of me to come—please let me go now."

"I'm going to take you home, but not until I know who you went out to dinner with on Thursday. I've thought about it ever since."

"No one at all."
"Thank goodness! I want to know if you will go out to dinner with me tomorrow night, and every night after that for the rest of your life? I love you—I have for a long time, but I didn't know it and was coming to tell you about it tomorrow. I've been a fool but I'll promise to be wiser after this if you'll take me."

"I was kneeling beside her now, and both her hands were in his.

"Oh, I do love you," said Jean, softly. "Better than anyone in the world, and if you approve of me really, I'll answer your advertisement tonight.
You're right sure I'll do it."

"So sure that we'll go out now and have our first dinner!"
And together they ran hand in hand down the stairs, laughing as they went.

Varieties of Spruce.

There are about 15 varieties of spruce, of which the Sitka spruce is the most valuable. Norway spruce, the commonest, so-called because it forms the chief lumber supply of Norway, is also found in middle Europe and in Siberia. Sitka spruce grows on the Pacific coast from northern California to Alaska; it is only found in coast regions, never inland. It grows easily to 150 feet in height, and frequently to more than 300 feet with a diameter of seven or eight feet at 100 feet from the base. In the islands of southeastern Alaska trees have been noted more than 200 feet tall and 25 feet in diameter four or five feet from the base.

Shot at a Venture.

When the result of a certain horse race reached an English mining village, one of the colliers remarked to his chum: "Ah've made a nice little dinner out of that race, and by sheer luck, too. Ah chalked all t' names o' t' horses on a revolving target, an' took it into a field and got my own woman to shoot an arrow at it while it wor spinning." "An' it stuck into the winner, did it?" asked his friend.
"No, it didn't," said the collier. "It stuck into a fine fat duck that wor waddling along at t' side o' t' field, and we had it for dinner today we age an' colliers."

"DIENDIO TONIC"
Says Hixson
tor's Advice, Is
And Is Now Well

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardul. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardul, which I did.

This last Cardul which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardul that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardul. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardul. Why not you? All druggists.

STICK WITH OFFICER

Men Carry Dead Lieutenant Miles
During Fight.

Striking Example of Devotion of Soldiers of French Army to Superiors.

With the French Armies.—One of the most striking examples of the men's devotion to their officers in the records of the French army has just become known, although it occurred on May 28.

Among the units of French African lighters are several battalions of "Joy-full" youths whose records before entering military service were besmirch-ed and who are now given a chance to redeem themselves on the battlefield.

During a recent action the "Joy-full" fought with remarkable ardor.
Their motto is "death is necessary." Assailed by overwhelming numbers, one battalion fought hand to hand with the enemy until forced to retreat to conform their line with the units on the left.

It was here on May 28 that a group of "Joyfull" saw their lieutenant fall in a ravine. Four of them refused to retreat and fought off the enemy with grenades until one of them could abou-der the dead man. With the body on their shoulders the four retreated twenty kilometers during the night of the 28th though the dead weight was agonizing. Weary and fatigued with lack of sleep, they tenderly carried their officer until they found time in the morning to bury him.

TAKE SAVINGS OF LIFETIME

Sailor and Wife Did Not Know They Could Not Take Gold Out of Country.

San Francisco.—The savings of a lifetime of a sailor and his wife have been seized by federal officials because the couple did not know of President Wilson's order forbidding the taking of gold out of the country.

Because Mrs. Ricardo Rodriguez learned banks, she persuaded her husband to carry their entire fortune, $1,850, with him on a trip to Central America. The officers found it and took possession. Because of the nature of the case permission is to be asked of Secretary McAdoo to return the money.

DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT THE WAR

Miner Comes in With $65,000 Stake, Invests It in Bonds and Goes Back to Work.

Reno, Nev.—For five years Charles McNeale has been working a placer claim in the mountains of the Powder River country in Oregon, happily unconscious of the fact that virtually the entire world was at war. McNeale came out of his mountain retreat with $65,000 in gold. On learning the Kaiser and made the universe his enemy the prospector attempted to enlist. He was too old. He then invested the $65-000 pike in Thrift stamps and Liberty bonds, ordered a grub stake and returned to the hills.

UNFEELING SERGEANT GETS HEAVY SENTENCE

Little Rock, Ark.—Here is how the United States protects her private soldiers. William L.
Taylor, an enlisted man at Camp Pike, was ill and sent word to his sergeant, George W. Reubling.
"I don't care, let him die," said Reubling. Reubling was tried by court-martial, convicted, sentenced to five years in military prison, forfeits all pay and allowances and is dishonorably discharged from the army.

Boy Named "Liberty Bond."

born to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Steine, has been named "Liberty Bond Steine."

PREACHER IN TOILS

THE REV. J. W. WHEELER IS AR-RESTED BY U. S. AGENT AT GLASGOW JUNCTION.

The Rev. J. W. Wheeler, aged 49, a prominent minister of the Baptist church, was arrested at his home near Glasgow Junction, Barren county, on a government warrant charging him with violating the espionage act. He gave bond to the sum of $1,000 for his appearance before United States Commissioner Byron Renfrow in this city. The arrest was made by United States Marshal C.
M. Richardson.

The Rev. Mr. Wheeler denies the charge and claims that he will be able to prove his innocence at his trial. It is understood that he said this war was an unrighteous war and the United States should have kept out of it.

The Rev. Mr. Wheeler formerly lived in this city, being pastor of various Baptist churches in the county.

REVIVAL AT LAFAYETTE.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church in Lafayette next Sunday evening, July 14th, conducted by J. T. Hawkins, the pastor.
This minister held his first meeting in Lafayette in 1874, since which he has held five meetings there and man-ny persons have obeyed the gospel and his preaching. This will be a community meeting for the benefit of the whole people.

DEATH CLAIMS CHILD.

The only child of Mr. and Mrs.
Archie Hopson, of the Rosetown vicinity, was taken by death yesterday morning at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Fannie C. Hille, mother of Mrs.
Hopson. Little Frances Hopson was about 12 years of age and until last Friday a bright, happy, and healthful child. She was stricken with colitis and a few days ago was brought to town where the doctors could give the case closer attention.

Tuesday the child grew much worse and three doctors were called in but nothing could be done to save the child which grew worse until the end. The funeral service was conducted yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Mrs. Hille's home by Rev.
R. K. McCrae of the Church of Christ.
Burial followed in Riverside cemetery.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy.
Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circular free. All Druggists, etc.

THIEVES BREAK
THRU AND STEAL

TWO BUSINESS HOUSES ARE EN-TERED TUESDAY NIGHT AND ROBBED.

Two business houses were broken into Tuesday night by thieves and the robbers found but "skim pickings" at one place. Penn's barber shop on E. 9th st. was entered by breaking a glass in the back end of the building but nothing of value was found or taken.

The other place entered was John J. Metcalfe's Mill Supply House on Liberty street, where the robber effected an entrance by cutting his way through over the front door. Here the thief opened the cash register and took out $25.00 or $30.00 cash and scattered notes and checks over the floor instead of taking them. Evidently, the party was playing safe by taking only cash which is not easily identified and negotiable everywhere.

Up to last night no clue to the robbery had been found. Police believe the same party entered both houses.

89 ARE DEAD.

Nashville, Tenn., July 10.—The latest report indicates 34 white and 55 negroes were killed and 56 injured in the collision of Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis passenger trains near here yesterday.

Allie Mullens, son of former jailer A. E. Mullens, was in the wreck, in a coach in which most of the occupants were killed. Mr. Mullens received a slight fracture of his right forearm when a seat fell on him but otherwise he is uninjured. In the seat with him was a man seventy-two years of age who escaped without a scratch.

Jas. A. McKenzie left yesterday for a visit to St. Louis.

These pictures are shown by permission of the Kentucky Council of Defense. Children under 18 years of age will not be permitted to witness them. A limited number of persons willing to help do war work will witness this exhibit at the Rex Friday morning at 100 o'clock. Public free exhibition at Tabernacle Friday night.

TWENTY SHORT

OF THE COUNTY'S QUOTA OF Y.
M. C. A. SECRETARIES.

Christian county quota of Y. M. C. A. secretaries for foreign service is 25. As yet only 6 applications have been filed. Two of these are on their way to France. Twenty more christian men with a real zeal for unselfish service are wanted. Mr. Miller, a Y. M. C. A. secretary, will be at Hotel Latham tomorrow to answer all questions pertaining to the work.

If interested get in touch with Geo. Crenshaw, the local Secretary for this work.

In Europe food is so scarce it is sacred; to waste it is sinful.

ALLENSWORTH
TRUE PATRIOT

SACRIFICING TIME AND MONEY
PREACHING PATRIOTISM OVER A WIDE TERRITORY.

The Kentucky Council of National Defense is putting on a speaking campaign over the state attempting to reach many sections heretofore untouched and will try to arouse all these sections to a full and clear understanding of what is the duty of every American citizen and what is expected of them.

The State Council has selected Mr. J. B. Allensworth of this city as one of the men to carry this message to the people in a clear, forceful and unmistakable manner. And the Council has chosen well, as Mr. Allensworth has, by his constant study of the war problems and unrelenting toil, gotten a clear and vivid view of the whole proposition and is able as a speaker to reach the most doubtful and sleeping individual and arouse him to a high pitch of patriotism and patriotic effort.

For ten days Mr. Allensworth has been speaking to country people in Christian county and Hopkins county and will continue his tour in other sections soon. This means quite a sacrifice on the part of Mr. Allensworth, yet he does it willingly and gladly as he has done all along since the outbreak of the war.

FERRELL'S BOYS

WILL NOT HOLD A REUNION IN AUGUST OF THIS YEAR.

While no formal meeting of the Executive Committee has been held, the members of the organization of Ferrell's Boys, so far as seen, are of the opinion that it is not a favorable time to hold another annual reunion next month and it will not be attempted. A meeting may be arranged for next winter or it may not be called until next year.

The following members have died since the last reunion in August 1916:

J. Ed Bronaugh, Nov. 6, 1917.
Jas. R. Gaines, died May 29, 1918.
Edward T. Campbell, Oct. 18, 1916.
E. Lee Ellis, Oct. 25, 1917.
Dudley Garth, Feb. 16, 1917.
L. Pope Miller, April 11, 1918.
C. C. Slaughter, Dec. 31, 1916.

IRON CRUSHER

WRECKED BY AN EXPLOSION—

USED BY SACKS, THE JUNK DEALER.

People of the northeastern portion of the city were startled Tuesday morning about 1:30 o'clock by a big explosion that excited comment and curiosity. It developed yesterday that the gas machine in the iron crusher of S. Sacks, on the L. & N. Railroad, between Fourth and Fifth streets, had "let go" and blown up. The machine was run by gas manufactured by a special plant and was used crushing iron to prepare it for shipment. No one was present at the time and no harm was done except to wreck the machinery.

NO DANGER OF SUGAR FAMINE.

Washington, July 10.—Definite assurances that there is no danger of a sugar famine were given by the food administration. The food situation generally is declared to be better than at any time since America undertook feeding the allied world. The American public, however, are expected to observe closely new sugar regulations, and to continue all other conservation measures at least in part.

There may be some slight accumulation of meat restrictions in the face of nearly a billion bushel wheat crop, it is regarded unlikely that there will be any lessening of restrictions in that direction.
